Moore also noted that income from the MAPS 25th Anniversary Bursaries endowment would become available for the first time this year and that this would substantially increase the resources available to support part-time students in need of financial assistance.

Nalini Rao commented that she was the recipient of the Gord Raymond Award for 2005 but that this was not listed in the programme at the MAPS Awards Dinner. David Moore noted that the names in the programme are principally recipients of either MAPS or CCE awards, or scholarships/prizes administered by the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships Office.

The Gord Raymond Award, which is directed specifically to part-time students, is one of the Community Contribution Awards overseen by the McMaster Alumni Association. A note will be made to include this in the programme at future Awards Dinners.

4. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Noor Nizam inquired whether the amounts shown under “Donations” were budgeted amounts or actuals. Armstrong replied that the audited financial statements reflect actual expenditures.
